

PREVENTING DEMENTIA

A Challenge for Healthcare Professionals

PROGRAM

Wednesday 21 June, 2-4pm (GMT+1)

2pm

Welcome

Manuela Morais, President of the national board of Alzheimer Portugal

2:10pm

Dementia Prevention – State of Art

Gill Livingston, Professor of Psychiatry of older people – Division of Psychiatry, University College London

2:40pm

Public health initiatives for primary and secondary prevention of dementia

Irene Heger, Researcher at department of Psychiatry and Neuropsychology of Maastricht University

3:10pm

Video Presentation: WHO – Tools for risk reduction

Katrin M Seeher, PhD Dipl-Psych Mental Health Specialist (Brain Health Unit), Department of Mental Health and Substance Use – World Health Organisation

3:15pm

Reminder Project

Ana Rita Silva, Senior Neuropsychologist and Research Fellow at CINEICC (Center for Research in Neuropsychology and Cognitive and Behavioural Intervention), University of Coimbra

3:35-4pm

Debate and conclusions

Moderator: Sabine Krofczik-Wilhelm, PhD, Neurodegenerative Disorders Pillar Head at PPD part of TFS

FULLY REMOTE | ENGLISH SPOKEN

*Participation in this event is free but registration is required

Registration mandatory at <https://rb.gy/8xmwx>

For more information: formacao@alzheimerportugal.org

With the support of

PPD[®]
Part of Thermo Fisher Scientific